The New Jersey Judiciary has joined with Raritan Valley Community College in Branchburg to offer classes to those seeking careers in municipal court administration. The 11-week Principles of Municipal Court Administration (POMCA) virtual course starts Monday, Sept. 11, 2023 for those interested in obtaining the required credentials for certain municipal court administrative positions.

The program will give prospective municipal court employees 18 years of age and older an understanding of Judiciary policies and basic municipal court procedures, including case processing, case management, and financial fundamentals, to prepare for potential career opportunities.

For more information about this course, visit the Raritan Valley Community College's website.

This course is $830 and open to the public. It is sponsored by the Administrative Office of the Courts, Municipal Court Services in collaboration with Raritan Valley Community College in Branchburg.
